

Vision for Learning and Teaching

- We celebrate the uniqueness of each person as being created in the image and likeness of God
- We promote the dignity and justice of each person
- We bear witness to the person of Jesus who gives meaning to life and learning.

- Positive relationships are built on an awareness and understanding of collaboration, respect, acceptance and forgiveness
- We acknowledge the right of learners to participate in decision making facilitating learning and promoting growth for all stakeholders.

We value and promote our Catholic Christian Traditions

Positive Relationships are nurtured and valued

- We provide high quality learning opportunities that encompass the richly diverse aspects of all life experience
- We provide learning experiences that are collaborative, negotiated and include focused teaching in relevant contexts
- We strive for learning that is purposeful, meaningful, creative and fun

Learners make meaning through the active pursuit of knowledge

All learners are capable and can succeed

- Every learner is in some respect like all others, like some others, like no others therefore learning is inclusive of all

- Through establishing supportive learning environments every person is able to achieve success in learning
- Learning is a lifelong process in which every person is engaged
